

Audit and Risk Committee – Terms of Reference

1. Purpose and Role

- 1.1 The Board of Trustees of GambleAware ('the Charity') has established an Audit and Risk Committee ('the Committee'). The Committee's primary responsibility is to monitor and review financial and other risks, associated controls, governance and financial assurance. The Committee will provide an independent and objective review of financial and governance matters, assurance processes and risk management.
- 1.2 The Committee will provide assurance for internal and external audit and will monitor corporate governance in terms of meeting the Charity's Objects through its Codes of Conduct and maintenance of registers of interest. Certain designated internal policies will be reviewed by the Committee in accordance with the Policy Review Matrix. The Committee will hold the Charity's management to account on matters within its remit and any related processes.
- 1.3 The Committee may derive additional authority to grant approvals and make decisions in accordance with any recorded delegation arrangement approved by the Board from time to time. The Committee will give direction on necessary corrective actions and agree timelines for completion of activities.
- 1.4 The Committee will act in pursuance of the Charity's charitable objectives. GambleAware charitable objectives
- 1.5 The Committee will consider the effectiveness of its reporting processes, ensuring that the Board receives adequate and proportionate information to aid the Board's own decision-making and its direction on strategy. The Committee will assist with the development and monitoring of the Risk Management Policy which will be approved by the Board from time to time and the Committee will consider its reporting obligations in the context of the agreed risk appetite and risk assessment methodology within the Risk Management Policy.
- 1.6 All members of the Committee will lead by example in Committee activities, reflecting the Charity's commitment to an equal, diverse and inclusive environment.

- 1.7 The Committee will also actively consider any presented updates or materials relating to any group set up by the Charity to receive guidance and advice from those with lived experience of gambling harm.

2. Membership
